Arts Letters & Numbers is pleased to announce “Sun Ship: An Exhibition in Support of Arts Letters & Numbers” at the Wilmer Jennings Gallery in New York City from June 17 until June 28, 2016. Hours are 11am-7pm, 7-days/week. Opening reception and live Benefit Auction will be held on June 20, 2016 from 6-9pm. Composer/pianist Michael Harrison will perform a mini-recital including original works at 7:30pm and the live auction will begin at 8pm.

Co-hosted by the Dorian Grey Gallery and curated by David Gersten, the Exhibition includes over 100 works donated by 70+ artists that make up Arts Letters & Numbers’ broader community of fellows, visiting artists, resident artists, advisory council, board of directors, and friends of ALN. The collection will comprise works by emerging and internationally renowned artists including Dennis Adams, John Ahearn, Michael Benson, Mike Bidlo, Martha Cooper, Marylyn Dintenfass, Adeline Kueh, Bill Morrison, Margaret Morton, James Romberger, David Shapiro, Homa Shojaie, Suha Traboulsi, and Ian Woo among others.

In addition to the benefit auction at the Wilmer Jennings Gallery on June 20, Bidsquare is hosting an online auction of the works, which is now live. Please visit Bidsquare, to review the works online. Absentee bidding will be available for the live auction in addition to an online ‘timed sale.’
